

Loom

A commercial loom is simplified by decreasing the number of warp fibers and harnesses which the looms operation more easily visualized. All the various functions of the loom can then be related to high speed industrial machines.

Designed and built by Joe Hastings & Exhibiteers Inc. as part of the Textile Exhibition for Technorama, Switzerland
Millwork by Technorama, Switzerland

www.exhibiteers.com